

Story By: Tanya Randall Pictures By: Pixelworx

Inaugural JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Sale Nets $401,550

The first JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Sale was one for the record books. Of the 62 head that walked through the ring, 52 sold for $401,500. They averaged $7,722.

Joe and Dee Braman of JB Quarter Horses were overwhelmed by the support of the consigners and buyers.

"I cannot thank you enough for supporting JB Quarter Horses and our guest consignors," said Dee Braman. "We appreciate our guest consignors for putting their trust in our first sale. We've said all along that, this was not just about JB Quarter Horses; it's about the barrel horse industry. All of you here are supporting the industry and helping it grow."

Thanks to Purina and Classic Equine, all JB Quarter Horses-owned consignments left with an assortment of products. Purina sent all the JB Quarter Horse consignments sired by a JB-owned

Miss JB 0614 was the highest selling 3 year old mare. She brought $10,000 from Timothy Novak, who also received a ton of Purina feed with his purchase stallion home with coupons for feed, and the highest-selling JB Quarter Horses-owned consignment by a JB stallion went home with a ton of Purina. Classic Equine provided hay bags, halters and sheets for the horses as well. Ez-All also kept the sale horse wash racks well stocked for the duration of the event.

Mr JB Fire Fame, a 3-year-old stallion ready to enter the 2010 barrel futurities, brought a $50,000 bid from Gerald Williams, Daingerfield, Texas, to be the high-seller of the JB Quarter Horses Creating Legends Select Barrel Horse Sale.

The 3-year-old golden palomino stallion Mr JB Fire Fame, consigned by JB Quarter Horses, commanded the highest price of the sale, bringing $50,000 from Gerald Williams, Daingerfield, Texas. Williams is well versed in the futurity industry, having owned 2006 leading futurity horse VF Sporty Design.

Bred by the Bramans, Mr JB Fire Fame is by the late great Fire Water Flit out of the 1D producing Dash Ta Fame daughter Shorease Famous. Fire Fame was expertly trained and demonstrated by top futurity trainer and rider Kenna Squires.

When multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifying calf roper Brent Lewis dropped the bridle on the 2-year-old gelding Ima Famous Warrior in the demonstrations, buyers took notice. The Bruce Robinson consignment by leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Canadian National Finals qualifying mare, Ima Copper Bug Too, by Copper Bugs, brought a bid of $30,000 from Louise Davis.

Lewis and Robinson later partnered up again to purchase the royally bred 2-year-old stallion Fiesta Royale for $22,000. Consigned by World Barrel Racing Productions' Booger Barter, the gray stallion is by noted racehorse sire and up-and-coming barrel horse sire Royal Shake Em out of the multiple NFR qualifying mare Firewater Fiesta, by Fire Water Flit.

The high-selling 2-year-old mare went home with Tom O'Neal, who bid $12,000 for French Fortunes. Sired by leading barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy, the Randy and Sharon Browder consignment is out of the nice mare Stick To My Demands, by Explode On Demand.

The Browders also consigned the high-selling yearling filly Sweet Little Fame, who brought $11,500. The daughter of Dash

Ta Fame out of Sweetlitttle Dasher, by Some Dasher, went to Joseph Gernentz and his multiple NFR qualifying wife, Terra Bynum.

Bringing a $6,000 bid from Scott Sherwood, Chasin Easy Money, a flashy Chasin Firewater out of barrel horse producer WCR Miss Precocious, by Easy Dinero, was the high-selling yearling gelding. Chasin Easy Money was consigned by Doug and Donna Hanover, who managed many of the horses in the sale.

Justa Famous Blurr was the pick of the weanlings, bringing a bid of $10,800 from T&T Barrel Horses. Consigned by Wrap N 3 Barrel Racing Producer Renee Spiller, the filly is a product of the magic cross between Dash Ta Fame and Murrtheblurr (TB).

Nicely demonstrated by National Finals Rodeo qualifier and top futurity trainer Kassie Mowrey, Miss JB 0614 was the high-selling 3-year-old mare. The JB Quarter Horses consignment brought $10,000 from Timothy Novak, who also received a ton of Purina feed with his purchase. Miss JB 0614 is by AQHA Champion and PRCA rope horse One Hot Jose and out of barrel money earner Miss Dallas Fuel, by Oklahoma Fuel. Miss Dallas Fuel is a sister to JB Quarter Horses stallion Dallas Fuel.

The Angela Rice consignment NZ Frenchmans Dance brought $5,750 from Robin Kuhnhein to be the high-selling 3-year-old gelding. Although paid in full to the 2009 Barrel Futurities of America's Juvenile Futurity, Kuhnhein plans to hold the Frenchmans Kirk gelding out of WR Featured Dance for 5-year-old futurities in 2010.

With a bid of $10,000 from Flaming Jet fan Lynn Hinds, Streakintouhfortune was the high selling futurity-eligible 4-year-old. Consigned by her breeder and trainer, Andrea Cline Herron, the daughter of Honorable Fortune, a Jet Of Honor-Flaming Jet stallion, is out of BFA Derby finalist Janes Un Streakin, by Streakin Go Go.

The sale also raised $8,700 for the Can Chaser Cancer Crisis Foundation, or C4 Fund. This new non-profit organization will help barrel racers defray the costs of cancer treatments. JB Quarter Horses donated Miss JB 0830, a yearling daughter of Chasin Firewater out of Sugar Pan Jr, by Sugar Pan. The filly sold to Dan and Leslie Kinsel, who made the purchase in loving memory of their fathers, who fought brave battles against cancer. Joe Braman and his brothers also donated a 3-day, 4-night hunt from Mellon Creek Outfitters, which sold for $4,000.

The 20 head by JB Quarter Horse stallions brought $92,950 for an average of $4,648 with many of those being weanlings, yearlings and 2-year-olds. The 10 Chasin Firewater weanlings, yearlings and 2-year-olds brought $42,850 for an average of $4,285. The three Two Timen Fuels brought $13,200 for an average of $4,400. The yearling and 3-year-old One Hot Jose brought $13,000 for a $6,500 average. The two Hot Corona 2-year-olds brought $9,000, an average of $4,500. The three Dallas Fuels brought $14,900 for a $4,967 average.

JB Quarter Horses, based in Refugio, Texas, stands Chasin Firewater, Dallas Fuel, Hot Corona, One Hot Jose and Two Timen Fuel. The ranch is proudly sponsored by Classic Equine and Purina. Please visit their website www.jbquarterhorses.com for more information.

"Your Horse Will Love Your New Kioti!"

KIOTI Let Off Duty Ranch make your chore time easy

OFF DUTY RANCH, INC.
Quality Products and Service
Lyle and Pat Woods, Owners
Phone: 765-473-6551 • Fax: 765-473-6586
www.OffDutyRanchInc.com

Offering For Sale
Horse Farm

Within minutes of
Hoosier Park & Indiana Downs

House Offers

- 4 Bedrooms
- Office
- LR & Family Room
- Garage
- Above Ground Pool

Farm Offers

- Just Under 11 Acres
- 5 Acres in Hay
- Creek runs through property
- 8 separate paddocks
- 20 stalls
- Potential Stallion/Breeding Barn
- Outdoor & Indoor Arenas
- Haylofts in both barns
- Hot Walker

765-748-6806