The mood around here seems to be think spring. Soon our horses will be shedding their winter coats & the show season will be starting up again in full force. If you haven't checked the status of your brushes yet, now might be the time. Brushes do need to be replaced from time to time as they get worn out.

Do you need to add some new brushes? Or better yet getting a whole new grooming box? The Custom Equine can help you with that task. The Custom Equine can paint you just about any design or logo that you would like on your brushes.

Above: Black & White paisley set; these are very pretty & flashy.

Right: Here is a custom brush box & brushes. If you have an old brush box that needs spruced up you can send it in or you can feel free to purchase a new one as well

Above: Custom brushes also make a great gift if you are running low on ideas or also nice awards.

Right: This pink brush set is very pretty; it has a girly charm that you just can't beat.

Along with brushes & brush boxes Tiffany of The Custom Equine also makes stable signs & ribbon displays.

It is getting to be that time of year again; we are starting to crave spring. There is no better way to get in the spring spirit by sporting pair of floral boots. The Anderson Bean Honey Bunch Boots from the Macie Bean line in tan are just adorable.

They feature turquoise piping & intricate stitching on the tops of the boot tabs. The turquoise stitching then filters down to the rest of the boot along side of the flower designs. The colors really pop against the light colored leather.

These Anderson Beans are available at a wonderful price from Allen's Boots, just under $200. If you can get any quality boot for a price like that, I would say you are doing very well.

You can find them at www.allensboots.com

"Meet the girl behind Horses & Heels"

I'm Raquel; I live out there where the city meets the country. One day I'm wearing stilettos, the next day it's spurs. I have an obsession with cowboy boots, Christian Louboutin, cosmetics and cooking. I have been riding since I was two-years old, have competed in just about every discipline & now I focus on barrel racing. I love speed & athletic horses, not to mention lots of sparkly things.

Horses & Heels is a trendy & practical blog. Keep up with the latest fashion, equestrian trends & learn how to become the perfect kitchen host. While some people deem country life to be dull & boring; Horses & Heels is shattering the myth with a unique intertwining of city & country life. Learn how to keep your horses & yourself dressed to impress.
